

Identity Protection Stay Safe and Secure

When it comes to protecting your identity,
Horizon is here for you.

Identity theft is a serious matter. It is an increasingly common complaint among consumers, and the amount of time fraudsters are using a consumer's information is already at high levels. That's why Horizon is fully prepared to provide credit monitoring and restoration solutions when it comes to preventing identity theft.

We offer top identity protection technology, through EZShield®, to proactively monitor and identify fraudulent activity 24/7. EZShield's multi-level protection secures your personal information by monitoring for potential exposure, changes to your credit report, and helps restore your credit in the event of a breach.
